

News From

JACK DOYLE

MONROE COUNTY EXECUTIVE

For Immediate Release

Thursday, May 10, 2001

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS THE BENEFITS OF LIVING TO BE 100 YEARS OLD

Monroe County Executive Jack Doyle today announced that Maralee Lindley, an Intergenerational Aging Programming Consultant, from Springfield, Ohio, will present a workshop entitled, "Who Wants To Live To Be 100?" on Thursday, June 14, 2001 at Monroe Community Hospital, 435 E. Henrietta Road, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Topics covered at the workshop include the positives of aging, the importance of elders in our society, family care giving and intergenerational programming. Ms. Lindley has worked with the United Nations and consulted with past presidential administrations on the topics of aging.

The suggested donation is $10.00 and includes continental breakfast. To register, call 428-4977 by June 11, 2001.

# #

*For further information, call:
Communications & Special Events at 428-2380
Visit us on the web: www.co.monroe.ny.us*

